MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Letter to Mr. Carl Stover, Executive Director,
National Institute of Public Affairs

1. The attached letter for your signature is in response to correspondence to you from Mr. Carl Stover, Executive Director, National Institute of Public Affairs (NIPA). The correspondence included a letter covering Mr. Stover's attachment of an annual report for 1965 on the Career Education Awards Program, which NIPA sponsors. It also included a copy of his address, "Sharing the New Life," which he gave on 7 December 1965 in Washington, D. C. to the Defense-Space Marketing Seminar, American Marketing Association.

2. In the letter to Mr. Stover I have included the names of the Agency's five nominees chosen by CIA's Training Selection Board. The supporting information on the five nominations has been completed for release to NIPA, whose nomination deadline is Tuesday, 1 February.

3. I recommend that you sign the letter to Mr. Stover.

John Richardson
Director of Training

Dear Carl:

Thank you very much for your letter and your annual report on the Career Education Awards Program. I am always interested in the opportunities provided by organizations like yours which help to insure future leaders in our government.

I am pleased to tell you that this Agency is participating in the 1966-67 Awards Program. I have delayed my reply to you until now so that I can include the names of the five employees whose nominations I [REDACTED] are highly qualified and I am confident they will represent the Agency commendably in your national competition. Mr. John Richardson, Chairman of the Training Selection Board, is sending you the applications to support their nominations.

Thank you also for including a copy of your address to the Defense Space Marketing Association. I have sent it, together with the report on the Awards Program, to officers in the Agency who are directly concerned with the information.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

/s/

W. F. Raborn
